Tue, 2014-10-24

- Manuel Geffken
- Luminous Fennell
- Room 079-00-014 (up the stairs, right “wing”)
- `concurrency@informatik.uni-freiburg.de`

- On the course homepage:
<https://proglang.informatik.uni-freiburg.de/teaching/concurrency/2014ws/>
- First sheet: 2014-10-31 Fri
- Next sheets: every other week
- (There is also a sheet 0)
- Some exercises on the sheets are practical (i.e., they require programming). You'll need:
  - Access to a (multi-core) computer with JDK-7 installed (e.g., Computer lab)
  - Additional concurrency libraries needed
will be introduced during the lecture or the exercise sessions

- Via email: `concurrency@informatik.uni-freiburg.de`
- Deadline: 13 days after distribution
more precisely: the Thursday before the new sheet is distributed, 23:59.
- To be admitted to the exam,
it is mandatory to submit something for each sheet.
- However, submissions are not rated, only reviewed.

- Every week
- Optional
- Purpose:
  - Discuss solutions to old sheets
  - Introduce new sheets
  - Discuss questions
  - Introduce additional material that may be required for a particular sheet
